2021-2022 Membership Application

Greeting School Public Relations Colleagues,

The 'Long Island School Public Relations Association' is an organization comprised of public relations and communications specialists from school districts across Long Island focused on:

- Networking/sharing with members and expert guest speakers
- Developing strategies for passing budgets, dealing with the tax levy cap
- Disseminating positive news; creating support for public education against a backdrop of challenging headlines
- Sharing the most effective means of successful lobbying for State Aid
- Member support when dealing with communications during crisis
- Developing effective Social Media platforms
- Workshops to develop effective communication skills

Network with colleagues in school districts across Long Island.
